AMANDA BUTLER

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HEAD COACH

2016-17 IS HER 10TH YEAR AS UF HEAD COACH & 12TH YEAR OVERALL AS A HEAD COACH

Combine passion, pride, toughness, intensity, humor, wittiness, competitiveness, leadership and mix in a healthy dose of a swagger and you have Amanda Butler, who in 2016-17 enters her 10th year as head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball team, as well as her 12th year overall at the helm of a program.

"She's a competitor. She is fierce on the court, but a fun person to be around off it. She played at Florida, so I think she truly bleeds orange and blue. She won't settle for anything less than number one."

— 2012 CAPITAL ONE ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT 4 TEAM HONOREE JORDAN JONES (2009-12) ON AMANDA BUTLER

Amanda Butler was in her second season as a Gator assistant coach when DeLisha Milton was named the program's first First-Team WBCA All-American.

Return of a Gator

- On April 13, 2007, UF Athletics Director Jeremy Foley identified Butler, one of the nation's top young coaching talents as well as a former four-year starter and two-year assistant coach for Florida, as the ninth head coach in Gator women's basketball history.
- A four-year starter for the Gators from 1990-94
- Earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences with honors on May 6, 1995
- Awarded a Master of Exercise and Sport Sciences on Aug. 9, 1997

Head Coach Amanda Butler: A Postseason Regular

- Butler has guided the Gators to a postseason berth in eight of her nine completed years
- NCAA Appearances: 2009, '12, '14 & '16.
- WNIT Appearances: four; reached 2013 Final Four
- First-ever coach to guide UF to a postseason berth in her inaugural season on the sideline

Good When We Get There

- In seven of eight trips to the postseason under Coach Butler, the Gators have won at least their first round game.

Coach Butler & the Postseason, Part 2

- During her two years as an assistant coach at UF, Butler was on staff when the Gators earned an NCAA bid both seasons, including the 1997 run into the Elite Eight.
- In her fourth and final year as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University, the 2001 Lady Govs earned just the second-ever NCAA bid in program history and the first since 1996.
- In her last five years with UNC Charlotte, the 49ers competed in the postseason each time, earning an NCAA bid in 2003 and a WNIT in 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007, the final two of those coming when Butler served as the head coach of the program.

Amanda Butler in the NCAA Tournament ... as a Gator

- During her time as a Gator letterwinner, Amanda Butler helped Florida earn its first-ever NCAA Tournament berth (1993) and followed that with another her senior year (1994), playing in all three games and totaling 65 minutes, 18 points, seven rebounds, nine assists with just two turnovers.

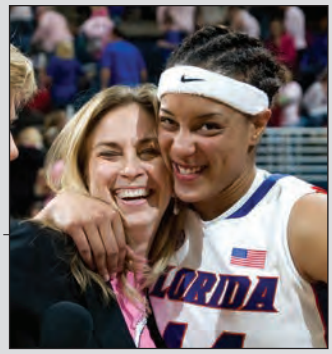
Amanda's parents - Steve & Barbara Butler - drove from Mt. Juliet, Tenn., to Gainesville to attend Amanda's introductory press conference when she was named Gator Head Coach.

national poll on Feb. 9, 2009, the program's first top-10 showing since Feb. 12, 2001

- The 2008-09 Gators shattered the program record by hitting 221 three-pointers, breaking the old mark of 179 set the previous season



"Coach Butler is very energetic and motivating. She really cares about people on and off the court. She's easy to talk to and very playful and funny."

2009 First-Team All-SEC Performer
Marshae Dotson (2005-09) on Amanda Butler

Butler on Elite List

- When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press national poll, Butler became one of only 24 women in the history of NCAA Division I women's basketball who had played for a team that was ranked in the AP Top-25 and later coached a team that earned a top-25 ranking.
- Even more rare was the fact the Butler played for and coached the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking, becoming only the sixth woman ever to accomplish that feat.
- Butler's grittiness and feistiness held true on the sideline during 2009-10, when she ruptured her left Achilles tendon on Oct. 24, 2009, as she was quarterbacking her then-undefeated flag football team in The Swamp Bowl, the name given to the playoff round of the on-campus league event.
- In spite of the injury, Butler never missed a beat, attending the Backcourt Club's annual membership drive event and the team's practice the next day.
- She underwent successful surgery on Oct. 26 and was back on the sideline Oct. 28.
- The next day, she volunteered her time at the Children's Miracle Network Art Auction that featured all art created by the pediatric patients at Shands Hospital in Gainesville.

- The 2006-07 49ers posted a 19-13 overall mark, advancing to the WNIT second round before losing to Virginia, 74-72.

- In her second year as an assistant coach at Charlotte, the 49ers captured the 2003 Conference USA Regular-Season title and earned the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

"Let's Go Peay"

- Butler spent four seasons (1997-2001) as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Tennessee, where then-head coach Susie Gardner hired her to take over the team's recruiting efforts. It didn't take long for Butler to make an impact.
- One of Butler's recruits, Brooke Armistead, became the OVC Freshman of the Year in 2000 and closed her career as the 2003 OVC Player of the Year, as well as a Second-Team Verizon Academic All-American.
- Also under Butler's keen eye for talent, Austin Peay became the first OVC school to land back-to-back league Freshmen of the Year recipients, with Armistead in 2000 followed the next season by Gerlonda Hardin, who emerged as the league's 2004 Player of the Year and collected Third-Team Academic All-America honors.
- Armistead became the school's all-time leading scorer and the first player in APSU history to be drafted by the WNBA.
- Her final season resulted in the Lady Govs' winning the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament for just the second time in program history and making their second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament, joining the 1996 APSU team in the "Big Dance" and sparking a run of four consecutive NCAA appearances for the program.

Breaking into the Coaching Circle

- Florida enjoyed two of its best finishes in the SEC Tournament during Butler's time as an assistant, with the Gators advancing to the semifinals for the first time in program history during the 1996 campaign and followed it with the team's first – and still only – appearance in the championship game.

Butler as a Gator

- On the court, the 5-foot-8 guard immediately took charge of the team from her first day at Florida, also the rookie season for Ross as head coach, as Butler started 99 of the 114 games she played during her career.

SEC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

SEC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

- Beginning with its inception on Feb. 7, 1980, and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Ga., which served as the site for six years from 1987-92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., where it was held from 1993-2000, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Ga.
- Since 2001, the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis, Nashville, North Little Rock, Ark., Greenville, S.C and Duluth, Ga.

SEC TOURNAMENT FACT

- The SEC was the first conference ever to televise every game of its postseason Women's Basketball Tournament.

SEC TOURNAMENT CHANGES

- The 2012-13 season marked the second time in SEC history the Women's Basketball Tournament underwent a format change. The tournament, which had been a four-day event featuring 12 teams since 1992, expanded to 14 teams, adding an extra day of competition. The addition of a day to the tournament will feature two additional contests played on Wednesday. Seeds 11 through 14 will compete in the opening games of the bracket, with the rest of the event continuing on Thursday.

ALL 14 TEAMS

- "The high profile of the tournament and the fact that it gives every institution the opportunity to play and compete for a championship was very important in the conversation about expanding the tournament. Our league is good enough to include all 14 teams and give them the opportunity to compete and win the automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament." - SEC Assistant Commissioner Leslie Claybrook

The Gators returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one-year absence and made their 15th overall "Big Dance" appearance in program history.

NCAA TOURNAMENT SKINNY

- The No. 5-seeded Gators played No. 12-seeded UAlbany (NY) at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y., where Florida had a comfortable 37-22 lead at halftime, but somewhere between the break and the start of the second half, the Gators lost their shooting touch.
- UAlbany outscored the Gators 19-7 in the fourth quarter when Florida hit just one field goal after sophomore Haley Lorenzen put the Gators up 57-46 with 7:49 left. The Gators didn't score again until senior January Miller's basket with 0.4 seconds left.
- Florida shot just 20 percent in the second half (6 of 30) and missed 11 consecutive shots in the fourth quarter as the Great Danes went on a 15-0 run.
- In the end, the Gators lost an opportunity to keep their remarkable season alive, falling to the Great Danes, 61-59.

FINAL SCORE, TAKE 2!

- Long story, short - there was an error in the final box score that was generated and the NCAA had to make a ruling, and the following is that official statement:
- "The final official score of the Albany-Florida game remains 61-59 based on the final progressive team totals of the official scorebook, even though final statistics indicate 61-58. The mistake was made by the official scorer in awarding a free throw to Florida that did not occur. The score remains 61-59 because Rule 224.3 states: "When all three officials leave the visual confines of the playing area at the end of the game, the officials' jurisdiction has ended and the score has been approved.""

BUTLER'S TAKE

"We had a great season. It's just really unfortunate for it to end feeling this much disappointment. We weren't us in the second half. In these biggest moments, you've got to be yourself exaggerated." - Head Coach Amanda Butler following the NCAA game

- The 2011-12 senior class: Deana Allen, Lanita Bartley, Jordan Jones, Ndidi Madu and Azania Stewart, who was the only 'true' senior that year.

FIRST DEGREE

NOTE: The final official score of the Albany-Florida game remains 61-59 based on the final progressive team totals of the official scorebook, even though final statistics indicate 61-58. The mistake was made by the official scorer in awarding a free throw to Florida that did not occur. 2016-17 NCAA Women's Basketball Rules (Rule 2, Section 9, Article 12) states that "…referee shall accept the record of the official scorebook, unless the referee has knowledge that permits another decision. When the discrepancy is in the score and the error is not resolved, the referee shall accept the progressive team totals of the official scorebook. "The score remains 61-59 because Rule 2-4.3 states: "When all three officials leave the visual confines of the playing area at the end of the game, the officials' jurisdiction has ended and the score has been approved."

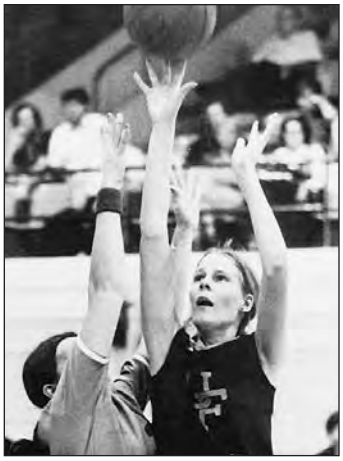
HISTORY

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

HISTORY OF FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL



Sue Chambers was the first woman to receive a basketball scholarship at UF.

Winter 1972 – Dr. Ruth Alexander, Donna Deutsch, Mimi Ryan and Linda Hall Thornton, with the assistance of Dr. Clifford Boyd, write the official proposal suggesting guidelines for an intercollegiate athletics program at the University of Florida.

March 1972 – The University of Florida's Faculty Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics unanimously approves the proposal with the effective date to be the 1972-73 school year.

1973-74 school year – The inaugural UF women's basketball squad is a club team and posts an 11-8 record under coach Darlene Wyrnak, who is a graduate assistant at the school. Members of that team include Valerie Bazarte, Susie Brownlee, Sue Chambers, Emma Gracey, Vicky Lavinsky, Cassie Macias, Kathy Wagner and Monte Wynn.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

Jan. 13, 1975 – Florida makes its varsity debut in Alligator Alley, but Valdosta State spoils the team's opener, defeating UF 57-47 despite 17 points from Sue Chambers.

Jan. 18, 1975 – Emma Gracey's 14 points leads the Lady Gators to their first-ever win, a 51-47 victory over Rollins College and sparks a seven-game winning streak.

July 21, 1975 – Guidelines for the Education Act of 1972, Title IX, is signed into law by U.S. President Gerald R. Ford.

Feb. 29, 1976 – The Lady Gators steal front page sports headlines in The Gainesville Sun, which reviews the squad's three-game sweep, capped by a 53-39 victory over Florida State, that gave UF its first state championship ever in women's team competition.

March 1976 – The team boards the UF University Athletic Association aircraft, "The Blue Goose," and travels to their first-ever Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) regional tournament held in Cleveland, Miss.

March 11, 1976 – UF downs Alabama 64-56 in the first round of the AIAW Regional III Tournament, but suffered their worst loss in program history later that same day, losing 132-49 to No. 4-ranked Mississippi College to end the season with a 16-8 record.

March 1976 – The College of Physical Education, Health and Recreation reorganize and eliminate dual teaching and coaching positions. Welch, who had planned to continue both, resigns as coach so she can devote more time to teaching and researching sport history.

Nov. 13, 1976 – Freshman Quientella Bonner becomes the first six-footer to play for UF. She goes on to grab a UF-record 1,321 rebounds during her four-year career, a mark that still stands.

Jan. 8, 1977 – UF logs its first-ever victory over a Georgia team, when Bonner tallied 28 points with 31 rebounds in a 79-67 win against Georgia Southern. Bonner's 31-rebound effort still remains the Lady Gators' and the SEC's all-time single-game record.

1977-78 season – The team finishes third at the FAIAW tournament and goes 2-1 in the AIAW Regional, but suffers the first losing season in program history with a 12-14 record.

Robin Pokoj, '85

"One of the funniest moments I can remember was when (coach) Mickie DeMoss was giving us a pep talk at half time in the lockeroom and stomping her foot on the floor. Her heel came off and flew across the lockeroom but she didn't want to crack a smile and spoil the moment so she hobbled over to the chalk board and continued to draw plays."

March 8, 1979 – The Lady Gators advance to the AIAW Region III Tournament as a result of their runner-up state finish, but lose to Mississippi 101-78 to end the season. Future Lady Gator coach Carol Ross scores six points and grabs a team-high nine rebounds in helping her Lady Rebels to victory.

Tonya and Casandra Washington

There are been two sets of sisters - non-twins - who have been Gator basketball letterwinners: Charmaine (1994-96) and DeLisha (1993-97) Milton & Casandra (1986-90) and Tonya (1997-00) Washington.

Monique Cardenas

Candace Cunningham

Bea Jacobs

Lindsey DeLoach

Monique Cardenas, Candace Cunningham, Lindsey DeLoach and Bea Jacobs are just four of the former letterwinners who have earned their law degree since graduating from UF.

Quientella (1976-79, 80-81) and Al Bonner (1974-78) are the only sister and brother tandem to suit up for their respective Gator basketball teams. Quientella also was the first six-footer in program history, standing 6-feet even.

Amanda Butler (1990-94) became the first Gator alum to become the head coach of an NCAA Division I basketball program, when she was named UNC Charlotte's coach on April 19, 2005. Two years later, Butler was announced as the Gators' head coach.

DeLisha Milton was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1997 NCAA Mideast Regional, where she led the Lady Gators to the "Elite Eight."

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68, behind 21 points from Dana Smith and a career-high six 3-pointers from Talatha Bingham. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach the same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting them with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

2012 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

A veteran team that featured five seniors helped the 2011-12 Gators earn the program's 18th postseason appearance in the last 20 years, making its 13th trip to the NCAA Championship. Florida, which compiled a 20-13 overall record and the 12th 20-win season in Gator history, upset No. 16/19-ranked Ohio State in the first round before falling to top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Baylor. The NCAA second-round appearance was the eighth in program history and the Gator's first since 2009, also the last time Florida competed in the Big Dance. As a team, Florida held opponents to 60.8 points per game - the second-fewest in a season in the 38-year history of the program. The 1983-84 squad held its foes to 59.1 points per game. Opponents shot 38.3 percent from the floor, the lowest since the 2000-01 Gators limited foes to a 36.9 percent clip. Florida also sported a +5.3 rebound margin, its best since the 2000-01 team held a +7.9 margin. Junior forward Jennifer George, who was voted by the league's coaches as a first-team All-SEC performer, led UF in scoring (12.8 ppg) and rebounding (8.8 rpg), an effort that also ranked second in the SEC (in SEC games and all games). Senior Jordan Jones did a bit of everything for the Gators during 2011-12, contributing 11.2 points, in addition to 3.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals, while hitting 67-of-198 treys (33.8%).

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Seniors Jaterra Bonds and Lily Svete headlined a very curious 2013-14 Florida women's basketball squad that entered the season with just nine healthy players after redshirt-sophomore Viktorija Dimaite re-tore the same left ACL that held her out of the entire 2012-13 campaign. Redshirt-junior Kayla Lewis was the only member of her athletic class and was joined by six sophomores, only two of whom where 'true' second-year players. Despite suiting up just eight players for the majority of the season, this 2014 band of Gators showed the grit and fight of their seventh-year head coach Amanda Butler and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament as the No. 11 seed. UF faced its largest deficit of the game (12 points) with just over 15 minutes remaining, but outscored No. 6 Dayton in the second half, 54-37, to earn a date with No. 3 and host Penn State. UF was picked to finish 10th in the SEC during preseason polls by the league's coaches and media, but battled to place fifth and won 20 games for the fourth consecutive season.

FLORIDA'S NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAMS

2016 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

While Florida's roster featured five seniors, it was truely a balenced effort that helped the Gators earn the No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament. On the 13-player roster... 10 Gators averaged at least 12 minutes of playing time per game; 10 Gators averaged at least 4.9 points per game; 11 Gators made at least one three-pointer; 11 Gators started at least one game during their respective Gator careers; 9 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading scorer in a game this season; 7 DIFFERENT Gators were UF's leading rebounder in a game this season; and 6 DIFFERENT Gators scored 20 or more points in a game this season. UF ranked No. 16 in the nation in scoring offense (77.4 ppg), however, the team's leading scorers - junior Ronni Williams and freshman Eleanna Christinaki - averaged just 11.1 and 10.4 points per game, respectively. Sophomore Haley Lorenzen averaged 9.3 points, while senior Cassie Peoples and junior Simone Westbrook were close behind at 8.8 and 8.0 per game, respectively. Florida was picked to finish 12th of 14 teams in the preseason SEC Poll by coaches and media and tied for fourth place in the final standings. The No. 5-seeded Gators played No. 12-seeded UAlbany (NY) in the NCAA opening round at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, N.Y., where Florida had a comfortable 37-22 lead at halftime, but somewhere between the break and the start of the second half, the Gators lost their shooting touch. UAlbany outscored the Gators 19-7 in the fourth quarter when Florida hit just one field goal after Lorenzen put the Gators up 57-46 with 7:49 left. The Gators didn't score again until senior January Miller's basket with 0.4 seconds left. Florida shot just 20 percent in the second half (6 of 30) and missed 11 consecutive shots in the fourth quarter as the Great Danes went on a 15-0 run. In the end, the Gators lost an opportunity to keep their remarkable season alive, falling to the Great Danes, 61-59.

^ The final official score of the Albany-Florida game remains 61-59 based on the final progressive team totals of the official scorebook, even though final statistics indicate 61-58. The mistake was made by the official scorer in awarding a free throw to Florida that did not occur. The score remains 61-59 because Rule 224.3 states: "When all three officials leave the visual confines of the playing area the end of the game, the officials' jurisdiction has ended and the score has been approved."

2015-16 AND 2016-17 NCAA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL RULES CHANGES

- NCAA women's basketball games will be played in four 10-minute quarters.

  Extra periods shall be five minutes each in length with a one-minute intermission before each.

- Teams will now reach the bonus and shoot two free throws on the fifth team foul in each quarter.

  Previously, teams reached a one-and-one bonus on the seventh team foul of each half and reached the double bonus (two shots) on the 10th team foul.

- In the four-quarter format, team fouls reset to zero at the start of each quarter.

  However, if a team reaches the bonus in the fourth quarter, that team would remain in the bonus during any additional overtime periods.

- Reduce the time permitted to replace a disqualified player from 20 to 15 seconds.

- Advancing the ball

  The panel approved a rule that allows teams to advance the ball to the frontcourt following a timeout immediately after a made basket in the last 59.9 seconds of the fourth quarter and any overtime periods.

  Teams also will be allowed to advance the ball to the frontcourt after securing the ball from a rebound or a change of possession. In these scenarios, the ball would be inbounded at the 28-foot mark on the side of the court where the scorer's table is located.

  The committee made the initial recommendation because it felt this change would add more excitement to offensive possessions at the ends of games because teams would no longer be required to travel the length of the court after inbounding the ball.

- 10-second backcourt exceptions

  NCAA women's basketball implemented the 10-second backcourt rule during the 2013-14 season.

- For the upcoming season, a team will not receive a new 10-second backcourt count when a throw-in results from the following:

  The ball is deflected out of bounds by the defense.

  There is a held ball and the possession arrow favors the offensive team.

- Post defense

  The panel approved a new rule that allows defenders to place a forearm or an open hand with a bend in the elbow on an offensive post player with the ball whose back is to the basket.

- Bands and amplified music

  In an effort to improve the overall fan experience, bands or amplified music may be played during any dead-ball situation during a women's basketball game. Previously, rules allowed music to be played only during timeouts and intermission.

- Media timeouts

  There shall be 4 electronic-media timeouts that are the length determined by the electronic-media agreement (SEC NETWORK TIMEOUTS: 2:45 min.).

  There must be one electronic-media timeout in each period that occurs at the first team-called timeout above the 5-minute mark of each quarter or the first dead ball at or below the 5-minute mark.

Women's Basketball Timeout Guidelines – Commercial Format

- There is one electronic-media timeout in each period.
- The break between the first and second, as well as between the third and fourth periods, may be used as an electronic-media timeout.
- The first team-called timeout in the second half will become an electronic-media timeout.

- First Quarter = 1 media timeout (2:45 min, all media breaks will have first horn at 2:30); scheduled for first dead ball at or below the 5-minute mark OR at the first team-called timeout above the 5-minute mark.
- Break between First Quarter and Second Quarter = (2:45)
- Second Quarter = 1 media timeout (2:45 min); scheduled for first dead ball at or below the 5-minute mark OR at the first team-called timeout above the 5-minute mark.
- Halftime = 15 minutes

- In addition, the first team-called timeout in the second half will become a media timeout (2:45 min).

FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex has undergone a few major 'facelifts' since its opening in October of 2001, most recently during the summer of 2013 when updated floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

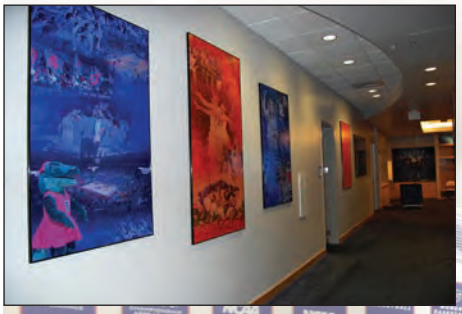
The Gator Women's Basketball Wall of Honor, which is along the East wall of the balcony that overlooks the Terry Frost Women's Practice Court, was created in the spring of 2009. Coach Butler selected as the initial honoree Paula Welch, the first full-time head coach in program history. Sarah Lowe was voted by a committee as the second honoree during the 2013 Spring.



The athletic training room, which houses its own whirlpool, is conveniently located steps away from the practice court.

The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.

During the summer of 2015, the weight room in Florida's Basketball Complex underwent a $1 million upgrade that doubled the size to 3,000 square feet and added a fueling station.

Images of Gator All-Americans adorn the corner between the hallway's to the team locker room and the training room, practice court and weight room corridor.

EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

Florida's game-day facility is currently undergoing a $64.5 million renovation, set to be complete in mid-December 2016.

When the renovation is completed, Exactech Arena at Stephen C. O'Connell Center will feature chair-back seating throughout the lower bowl, a state-of-the-art center court-hung scoreboard, new sound system and amenity upgrades in the new concourse areas.

The first Gator women's basketball game is scheduled to be played in Exactech Arena on December 28, 2016 versus Southeastern Louisiana, to be followed by eight games against Southeastern Conference foes.

The new capacity for basketball at Exactech Arena will be 10,133.

Florida will play a majority of its 2016-17 non-conference schedule on the road and at various neutral site venues across the state.

A RENEVATED HOME WITH A NEW NAME

The UF Board of Trustees voted to approve a collaboration that will allow Exactech, a local-bred medical device company at the forefront of joint replacement, and the O'Connell Center to share the marquee at the home for Gators athletics since 1981. The agreement brings together two Gainesville-based organizations with more than 30 years each of collaborating on education, innovation and health care.

Exactech's naming agreement is broken into two phases; a 10-year, $5.9 million pledge with an additional five-year, $3.5 million option on the back end. The multi-million dollar value of the contract was instrumental in helping UF, which owns the O'Connell Center, and the University Athletic Association, the arena's prime tenant, proceed with the ambitious $64.5 million renovation of the facility that is scheduled for completion in December. Fox Sports represented UF in helping broker the agreement.

Still based in Gainesville, Exactech has more than 700 employees who design, develop, manufacture and distribute innovative orthopedic implants and surgical instrumentation for patients undergoing shoulder, knee, hip and spine surgery.

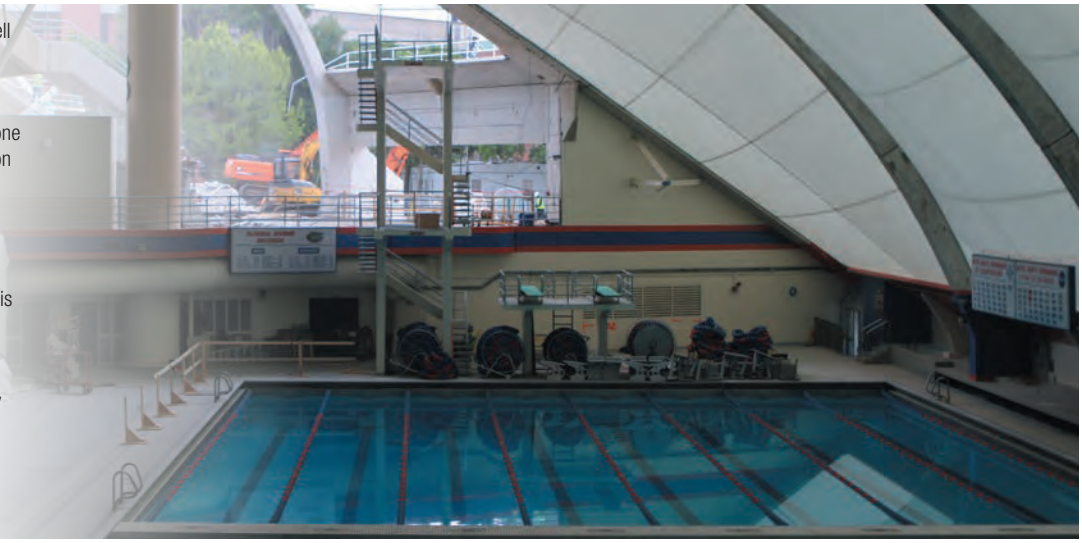
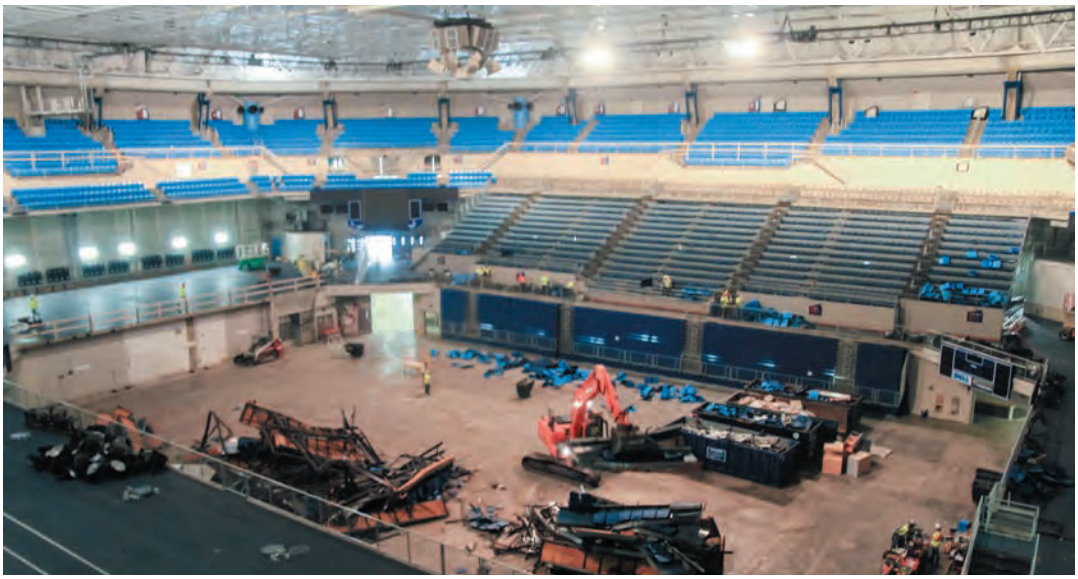
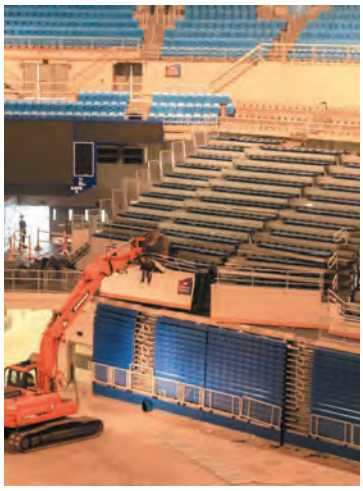
EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER RENOVATION PROJECT

The Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center renovation project was officially a "go" during the Fall of 2015, when the University of Florida inked construction authorization paperwork with contractor Brasfield & Gorrie, one of the nation's largest privately held construction firms. The renovation of this iconic building is a unique partnership between UF and the University Athletic Association to help fund and manage the $64.5-million project.

The design process began in July 2014, and this major milestone is the culmination of the hard work of many constituencies on campus. With the planning stages of the project complete, the building process is set to begin, as Tuesday marks pre-bid meetings with subcontractors and small businesses interested in working on the project along with Brasfield & Gorrie, Davis Architects and TLC Engineering.







Renovation Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: When did the project begin?
A: The design process was completed and portions of construction began in Fall 2015. Visual manifestations of work such as construction fences began to appear as early as October 2015, though the O'Connell Center remained fully operational until the massive overhaul began in Spring 2016.

Q: When will construction be complete?
A: The renovation is scheduled to be completed in time for UF's Fall semester commencement in December 2016.

Q: How much does this renovation cost?
A: The estimated cost for renovating the O'Connell Center is $64.5 million.

Q: How is the renovation being funded?
A: The University of Florida and the University Athletic Association are partnering to fund the project.

Q: Is this renovation just about athletics?
A: No, though many of UF's athletic teams will benefit. The O'Connell Center hosts a wide variety of events that benefit the entire university and the Gainesville community, including UF commencement, concerts, trade shows, job fairs and local high school graduations.

Q: What does the renovation entail?
A: The strategic design and the amenity improvements involved in this project will provide students, fans, alumni and patrons with a dramatically new experience. The scope of the renovation includes a seating bowl update, the addition of premium seating areas, installation of a state-of-the-art center-hung scoreboard, upgrades to team spaces and an enhanced concourse to improve the fan experience.

Q: Why not just build a new arena?
A: The O'Connell Center is ideally situated in the heart of the UF campus, which makes it easily accessible and a vibrant part of student life. A new construction would have been more costly and would have had to go in a location less conducive to the many functions of the O'Connell Center.

Q: Where will Spring & Summer 2016 commencement ceremonies be held?
A: Currently, UF plans to host Spring commencement ceremonies at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and Summer commencement at the Phillips Center and/or other locations on campus while the O'Connell Center is under renovation.

Q: Where will volleyball compete in the 2016 season?
A: Volleyball will host its 2016 home schedule at its practice facility, located inside the Gale Lemerand Center.

Q: Where will men's and women's basketball play the early part of their 2016-17 schedules?
A: Both basketball teams are set to play some games around the state of Florida. The women's team will pursue a similar, though not identical, plan for its early-season home schedule.

Q: What improvements will affect gymnastics and swimming & diving?
A: The recently-renovated gymnastics studio will not be affected, but upgrades will be performed on the locker room, as well as the addition of video viewing and lounge space at gymnastics. Improvements in the natatorium area will include improved indoor air quality, restrooms and concessions adjacent to the natatorium, as well as a separate entrance for use when there are multiple events going on.

Q: Who is working on the renovation?
A: The project is being coordinated through the UF Planning, Design and Construction office with members of the O'Connell Center and University Athletic Association staffs providing input. The design and build team also includes Davis Architects, Brasfield & Gorrie General Contractors and TLC Engineering.

HISTORY OF EXACTECH ARENA AT THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

A record-sellout crowd of 12,222 fans packed the O'Connell Center on Feb. 11, 2001 to watch the Gators battle Tennessee. It remains the largest crowd ever to watch a regular-season women's basketball game on any level - college, pro or international - inside the state of Florida.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is the game-day home of Gator Basketball.

Built at a cost of $14 million, the O'Connell Center - named for former UF President Stephen C. O'Connell (1967-73) - is the showplace for college basketball in the state of Florida.

The multipurpose sports center features a main arena, which underwent improvements during the summer of 2011 and is capable of seating 11,373 spectators and fans, covering more than 3.6 acres and containing 292,000 square feet.

The structure housed the Gator Basketball offices prior to the opening of the UF Basketball Complex in October of 2001.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center has been the site of all Gator Basketball games since its opening in 1981.

The Gators' home court has a championship-feel to it -- literally! During the 2006 national championship celebration for the men's team, the UAA administration unveiled the 2006 Final Four floor, which it purchased so that both teams could play on for the 2006-07 season once it was refinished and Gatorized. Also new in the O'Connell Center for the 2006-07 season was four 12' x 16' videoboards (10 mm resolution). The total cost of the video project was $2.5 million.
